

Chris Corin
Terry Fiehn

AQA
A-level
History

Tsarist and Communist Russia

1855–1964

Contents

Introduction

v

Part 1: Autocracy, Reform and Revolution: Russia, 1855–1917

Section 1: Trying to preserve autocracy, 1855–94

Chapter 1: Alexander II, the Tsar Liberator 1

1 Russian society in the middle of the nineteenth century 2

2 The reforms of Alexander II 9

3 Reaction and revolutionaries 24

Working on essay technique: focus, structure and deploying detail 35

Chapter 2: Autocracy and modernisation 37

1 The nature of autocracy and the tsarist state 38

2 Alexander III, 1881–94 42

3 Modernisation, 1880–1914 50

4 Social and cultural change, 1880–1914 60

Working on essay technique: analysis 74

Working on interpretation skills 76

Section 2: The collapse of autocracy, 1894–1917

Chapter 3: The collapse of the Russian Empire, 1894–1917 78

1 Nicholas II 79

2 Ideologies, liberals and radicals 83

3 The 1905 revolution 91

4 The constitutional experiment, 1906–14 99

5 War and revolution 105

Working on essay technique: argument, counter-argument and resolution 117

Chapter 4: The Bolshevik seizure of power, 1917 121

1 The Provisional Government and the Soviet 122

2 The October Revolution 130

3 The establishment of the Bolshevik state 139

Working on essay technique: evaluation and relative significance 147

Working on interpretation skills 149

Key questions Part 1: Russia, 1855–1917 153

Part 2: The Soviet Union, 1917–64

Section 1: The emergence of Communist dictatorship, 1917–41

Chapter 5: Lenin to Stalin, 1917–28	157
1 How did Lenin and the Bolsheviks overcome opposition, 1918–22?	158
2 Economic developments, 1922–28	172
3 The struggle for power after the death of Lenin	175
4 Social and cultural developments, 1918–28	184
Working on essay technique: essay writing	192
Working on interpretation skills	193
Chapter 6: Stalin's dictatorship, 1928–41	194
1 The Great Turn in the countryside: collectivisation	195
2 The Great Turn in the towns: industrialisation	200
3 The Great Terror	208
Working on interpretation skills: extended reading	214
4 The political, economic and social condition by 1941	216
Working on essay technique	230

Section 2: The Stalinist dictatorship and reaction, 1941–64

Chapter 7: The Great Patriotic War and High Stalinism, 1941–53	231
1 The Great Patriotic War	232
2 High Stalinism	243
Working on essay technique	258
Working on interpretation skills	259
Chapter 8: Khrushchev and de-Stalinisation, 1953–64	260
1 The emergence of Khrushchev and de-Stalinisation	261
2 Economic and social developments, 1953–64	270
3 Opposition and the fall of Khrushchev	277
Working on essay technique	285
Working on interpretation skills: extended reading	286
Key questions Part 2: The Soviet Union, 1917–64	288
Further reading	292
Glossary	298
Index	300